Access to Amsterdam by Air:

Schiphol International Airport Amsterdam Airport Schiphol (Dutch: Luchthaven Schiphol, Dutch pronunciation), is the main international airport of the Netherlands, located 4.9 nautical miles (9.1 km; 5.6 mi) southwest of Amsterdam, in the municipality of Haarlemmermeer, province of North Holland. It is the fifth busiest airport in Europe in terms of passengers and over 100 airlines fly into the airport daily.

Access to Hotel/Training by Car:

From Schiphol airport, if you are coming by car, get on to A4, follow A4 and A10 to Verlengde Stellingweg/s118 in Amsterdam-Noord, Amsterdam. Take exit s118 from A10/E35. Turn right onto Verlengde Stellingweg/s118 (signs for Tuindorp-Oostzaan) (drive 290m). Turn right onto Molenaarsweg/s118 (drive 1.3 km). At the roundabout, take the 2nd exit onto Cornelis Douwesweg/s118 (drive 1.7 km). Turn right onto Ms. van Riemsdijkweg (drive 280 m). The impressive tall glass architecture of the hotel is on the right hand side and cannot be missed. Turn left onto Mt. Ondinaweg (drive 100 m). Turn left on NDSM-Plein. The hotel will be on the right hand side.

Access to Hotel/Training by Bus:

From the Central Station take bus 391 or 394 and get off at the stop Klaprozenweg. Once you get off from the bus, walk straight and take the first street (Ms. van Riemsdijkweg) to left hand side. Keep walking on the street for 5 minutes. The tall glass structure exterior of the hotel is very noticeable on the left hand side.
